LOCAL NEWS.

ROBBERS ARRESTED .- We mentioned yeserday the arrest on the down train on the Orange and Alexandria Railroad of three parties, for robbing the house of Mrs. Mays. The following additional particulars concerning the arrested are taken from the Lynchburg News: ...We are pleased to hear that the three young men who robbed the trunk of Miss Bettie White, at the house of her aunt, Mrs. Mays, near Glasgow Station, in Amherst, on Monday morning, were arrested on the Orange cars at Shadwell, in Albemarle, yesterday, by Captain John A. McLain, of this city, and were taken to Culpeper Court House, and lodged in jail .-They got on the train at Shadwell, and were immediately recognized by Capt. McLain. A telegram was sent to Charlottesville, and also to Culpeper Court House, directing the arrest of the parties if they could be found, which fortunately reached Culpoper before the passage of the train, and gave Capt. McLain the the patronage of the citizens. necessary authority to hold his prisoners. It will be a relief to the people to know that these desperate characters are in custody; and we shall be much mistaken if the investigation which will be made do not fix upon them the guilt of the murder of Mr. Ballew, near Buch-

BEHIND TIME. - The passenger train on the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, due here vesterday evening at forty five minutes past four, did not arrive until half past seven, because one of the ears of the up freight train got off the track near the bridge over James River, in the morning, and consequently obstructed the track at that point for an hour or HEAVY FREIGHT.—The steamer Express due here yesterday evening from Baltimore, did not arrive until this morning, in conse quence of her being so heavily loaded. A portion of her freight was three thousand bushels of corn, for Georgetown. She did not make the landing at Chapel Point, on account of her heavy draught of water.

ARRESTED AND DISCHARGED. - Officer Padgett, yesterday, upon the receipt of a telegram from Culpeper Court House, arrested, in this city, a man who was driving a sorrel horse, harnessed to a green wagon. Soon after the arrest, however, another telegram was received, which authorized the release of the party. + 400 +
